Aidan of Lindisfarne (c. 590 – 651 AD)

St Aidan was an Irish monk who brought Christianity to the North of England. He was a missionary and Bishop to King Oswald of Northumbria, the first Christian ruler of the North.

He was known for his simple unworldly life and gave away all gifts from the King and his nobles to the poor.

*“Augustine was the Apostle of Kent,
but Aidan was the Apostle of the English”
– Joseph Lightfoot, Bishop of Durham*

August 31st is his feast day in the Anglican, Catholic, Orthodox and Lutheran Churches.
